Unit 4 – Mongo Compulsory assignment-First part

The restaurant has now decided to use MongoDB to manage the information of the customers:

1. Define all collections and documents necessary to store the information from the restaurant, according to the requirements of the application

2. Create the Java model for the new documents, and import all the data from MySQL

3. Implement all the functionality of the restaurant application, using the Mongo Java driver with Bson documents.